Go For Bronze

It's time for the weather to start warming up and that means you can add a little bit more warmth to your winter skin, too. A golden color is awaiting you with my cheekbone popping bronzer suggestions. By beauty editor Mickey Williams

Smashbox Green Room Bronzer

Mickey says: "I love this bronzer because it's not shiny and has cool undertones. I contour cheeks and double chins with Green Room, and nobody can see the shading. It's great for anyone who still needs to lose the extra padding in their face from the holidays."

Brush on this solid bronzer anywhere you want to look sun-kissed: apply to cheeks, temples, or nose. All Green Room packaging is biodegradable or recyclable and all products are made with environmentally-friendly formulas, so it's beauty you can feel good about! Plus, with the purchase of every Smashbox Green Room product, a Moringa tree will be planted in a developing country by Trees for the Future.

Benefit's 10 Bronzing and Highlighting Face Powder Duo

Mickey says: "10 is perfect for the paler types. My only complaint about this bronzer is the high shimmer aspect. Be careful not to apply too much to avoid a graying affect. Besides that, the tone and colors in 10 carve out a sculpted model-like cheek."

Bronze & highlight in one sexy sweep. For a supermodel glow & sleek, sculpted cheekbones, this duo of satiny pink & bronze powders tantalizes your complexion and décolleté...and makes you a perfect 10.

Tips and tricks: Lightly sweep brush over powder so pink highlighting powder appears on half the brush & bronzer on the other half. With pink side up, whisk from the apple of the cheek up to the hairline. Now you've done the sexy sweep!
